

Net neutrality has nothing to do with Obama and everything to do with securing conditions under which free market principles can thrive by ensuring unrestricted access to media and online resources. I support net neutrality backed by Title 2 oversight of ISP's.